

Southern California Festival of the Arts (SCFA)

Dear Colleagues,

I have reserved the Museum of Making Music in Carlsbad on April 18, 2009 and, if necessary, April 19, 2009 for the event that has been known as Southern California Festival of the Arts or SCFA.

I would like to form a committee of teachers who are interested in this event and who would be willing to meet together on Monday, March 2, 2009 at a centralized location which will be announced later. We will work together to select a new, more appropriate name for this music event, identify evaluators, and make other decisions.

We already have a very good simplified framework for our district needs as formulated by the chair and participants from last year. As we grow in this program in the future, we will be adding and amending as necessary.

Please contact me by e-mail to ylrobbins@hotmail.com or by telephone at (760) 721-0575, if you are interested. In the meantime, I will be contacting participants from last year.

I hope to hear from you soon!
